*Note Your diploma will be mailed to this address after the completion of summer term and all degree requirements are met.

In order to petition for participation in the spring commencement ceremony, you (the student) must meet the following criteria:

- You must be a graduation candidate for the upcoming summer semester.
- You must be within 9 credit hours of completing degree requirements.
- You must be pre-registered for spring classes and list the outstanding coursework for summer semester below.
- You must currently be in Good Standing (have 2.0 GPA) through your most current semester.
- You must have applied for summer graduation by the spring graduation application deadline.

Please list the courses that you will have outstanding for the summer below:

Course prefix and number	Course name	Credit hours

I understand that I must have a graduation GPA of at least 2.00 in order to be awarded my degree. Additionally, I understand that I will not receive my diploma during the ceremony and that my document will be mailed to the address above following the completion of my degree requirements during the summer semester.
