

SOUTH GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE LIBRARIES
PATRON CONDUCT POLICY

The Libraries' mission is to provide a student-focused learning environment conducive to study, research, and academic excellence. Library users are expected to act responsibly, appropriately, and courteously to preserve the library facilities, environment and collections. Therefore, disruptive or disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated. Persons who violate any library policy or engage in conduct deemed inappropriate by library staff may lose their privileges to use the Libraries at the discretion of the library administration, be subject to South Georgia State College imposed discipline, and/or be subject to criminal prosecution or other legal action, as appropriate. Library administration reserves the right to authorize temporary suspension of any of its policies to accommodate college sponsored or library sponsored events and receptions.
