

RESOURCES FOR PATRONS WITH DISABILITIES

Physical Access – Douglas Campus Library

Parking: Handicapped Parking is available in the front of the Williams S. Smith Library.

Building Access: The one point of access to William Smith Library is the entrance on the South side of building. Persons wishing to enter the library may take the ramp up from the ground level and use the automatic door in the front.

Restrooms: All public library restrooms are wheel-chair accessible. The restroom next to the Georgia Room is larger and made specifically for wheel chairs.

Physical Access – Waycross Campus Library

Parking: Handicapped Parking is available in the front of the Administrative Building where the library is located.

Building Access: There are four entry points to the library. Persons with disabilities wishing to enter the library may use the automatic door in the front or the automatic door to the right side of the library.

Restrooms: The restrooms are located next to the main door to the library and one stall is specifically designed to accommodate a wheelchair.

Book Retrieval, Printing, and Photocopy Assistance – Douglas Campus Library

William Smith Library aims to ensure complete access to its public collection to all patrons upon request of the format required, irrespective of physical limitation or challenge. Patrons with disabilities who find any shelved material difficult or impossible to retrieve should seek the assistance of library staff to retrieve library materials and to use library equipment. All parts of the William S. Smith Library are accessible by wheelchair.

Book Retrieval Assistance and Printing – Waycross Campus Library

All parts of the Waycross campus library are accessible by wheelchair. There is one computer work station specifically designed for wheelchair access. Also, the WEPA kiosk used for printing is accessible to wheelchair-bound patrons. Patrons with disabilities who find any shelved material difficult or impossible to retrieve should seek the assistance of library staff to retrieve library materials or provide assistance in using any library equipment.

Research Assistance – Douglas and Waycross Campus Libraries

If your research requires very specialized and/or lengthy consultation, you may wish to make an appointment with a Librarian. Please call 912.260.4324 for assistance on the Douglas campus and 912.449.7519 for assistance on the Waycross campus..

See also:

SGSC Student Access Services

National Library Service for the Blind & Physically Handicapped